

Ukraine's Urgent Requirements

As of 23 May, 2022

Priority	Capability	Still Needed
1	Multiple Launch Rocket Systems (MLRS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 122mm GRAD rockets and launchers 300mm Smerch and 220mm Uragan MLRS ammo Transition to NATO-standard MLRS systems
2	Artillery	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Additional towed howitzers (e.g., M777) Additional self-propelled tracked howitzers (e.g., M109) Additional non-standard (152mm) wheeled howitzers (e.g., DANA) Large quantity of additional 155mm and 152mm ammunition Loitering munitions
3	Radars	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Counter-battery (firefinder) radars (e.g., AN/TPQ 37) Air defense radars (e.g., AN/MPQ-64 Sentinel)
4	Unmanned Aerial Systems	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strike UAS Surveillance UAS
5	Armored Personnel Carriers with Weapons	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Western-origin APCs Associated ammunition
6	Air Defense	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Missiles for Ukraine's current medium-range systems (S-300 and SA-11) Transition to Western-origin layered air defense system Additional Western and Soviet-era SHORAD systems
7	Coastal Defense	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mobile coastal-defense missile systems Associated anti-ship missiles
8	Tanks and Infantry Fighting Vehicles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Operable Soviet-era tanks and IFVs Transition to Western-origin tanks and IFVs
9	Electronic Warfare Equipment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Suppression of Enemy Air Defense (SEAD) Systems (e.g., Koral) Radar jamming and deception systems
10	Anti-Armor Weapons	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Anti-tank guided missiles (e.g. Javelin, NLAW) Anti-tank grenade launchers
11	Combat Aircraft	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Multi-role aircraft Attack aircraft Spare parts and munitions for current Soviet-era fleet
12	Helicopters	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mi-series attack and transport helicopters Transition to Western army and navy helicopter solutions
13	Communication Equipment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Tactical communications systems
Additional Capability Requirements		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Fuel Patrol Boats Counter-UAS Medical equipment and services Optical surveillance equipment